SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The book entitled Barrels And Actions is classified as:
Unrestricted.

The book does not pass through any of the "subject matter gateways" of sex, horror, crime, cruelty or violence as interpreted by the Court of Appeal in Living Word Distributors v Human Rights Action Group (Wellington) [2000] 3 NZLR 570. The 320 page book published in 1991 in the US is a technical manual on aspects of gunsmithing. The book discusses various processes related to the manufacture, repair and maintenance of barrels, especially for rifles and shotguns. The primary purpose of the book is informing professional gunsmiths on matters of technical interest. The book presumes a significant level of metal-working and gun knowledge in the reader. It presumes expertise with and access to expensive, precise and sometimes sophisticated metalwork machinery and equipment, and the motivation to create sophisticated tools and equipment for gunsmithing.

The book does not describe, depict, express, or otherwise deal with either crime or violence. As a result the book cannot be classified in any way other than unrestricted. The rights and freedoms of expression in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 are not limited in any way.
